SARTORIAL ELEGANCE

Sartoria, situated in the heart of Mayfair, just moments away from Oxford Street and Piccadilly Circus, offers a true taste of old world glamour set against a backdrop of 20th Century romantic Italy.

Sartoria's Italian heritage and its location on London's historic Savile Row were the inspiration for David d'Almada's re-design of the restaurant in the winter of 2015, where he combined complementing styles of English Gentleman's tailoring and Italian fashion with modern day twists.

With renowned Italian chef Francesco Mazzei at the helm as Chef Patron, expect a 'temple of Italian cuisine', inspired by Francesco's home region of Calabria in Southern Italy.

From private dinners and elegant parties to drinks receptions and product launches, Sartoria boasts a stylish bar, two private dining rooms, a stunning wine room and, on selected dates, you can even hire the whole venue.

PRIVATE DINING

Sartoria boasts two elegant private dining spaces that can be tailored to suit every occasion, with the versatility to combine both rooms for a larger group. The opaque sliding doors of the rooms overlook the main restaurant, offering intimacy ideal for more discrete events. Alternatively, guests can leave the doors open to soak up the vibrant ambience and atmosphere from the main restaurant.

For a more intimate experience, our newly converted Wine Room provides an atmospheric setting for groups of up to 6 people. Surrounded by some of the finest bottles of wine individually selected from all over Italy, the floor-to-ceiling glass panel looking into the restaurant makes for a sophisticated and exclusive event space.
